

Join Christian Retailing's Author Corner

As an author, you know how important it is to make a personal connection with retailers and readers. Here is your opportunity to share something of your personal story directly with both. Through Christian Retailing's Author Corner you can share what inspires your writing, recommend influential books by others and offer a special message to retailers—all from the comfort of your home or office.

It's easy and you don't need expensive equipment or an elaborate backdrop—just a camera with good video and audio quality. To get started, record your answers to the following five questions:

- What inspires you to write?
- Describe a typical workday.
- What special message do you have for Christian retailers?
- Who has been the most influential person in your writing career?
- Which three books should everyone read and why?

Each answer should be recorded separately and should be just 30 seconds to 1 minute in length (no need to repeat the question on camera). Once you've completed your videos, clearly mark your name and which question you are answering, and send it via We Transfer (<https://wetransfer.com>) to Online Editor Felicia Mann at felicia.mann@strang.com.
