“The purpose of The Original African Heritage Study Bible is to interpret the Bible as it relates specifically to persons of African descent and thereby to foster an appreciation of the multiculturalism inherent in the Bible.” —from the Introduction

This one-of-a-kind Bible sold over a million copies before its previous publisher closed its doors. Now, Judson Press is pleased to make this best seller once again available.

The Original African Heritage Study Bible offers a number of unique features which reveal the African/Edenic contribution to Judaism and Christianity, including:

- Highlighted verses about Africa and Biblical characters of African descent
- 48 pages of reference to African/Edenic persons, places and events
- Art reproductions taken from the Mafa tribe collection of Cameroon, Africa
- Full-color maps showing where important African/Edenic events and places mentioned in the Bible occurred in the Ancient World
- 101 favorite Bible verses from people of the African Diaspora
- Specially selected articles by recognized biblical scholars, including “Biblical Hermeneutics in Africentric Perspective” from J. Deotis Roberts’ book Africentric Christianity
- Words and music to famous slave songs

This is a Bible no African American Christian should be without!

Cain Hope Felder is chair of the Doctor of Ministry program at Howard University where he is also professor of New Testament Language and Literature. He serves as the editor of the Journal of Religious Thought and is the author of several books. Dr. Felder holds both master’s and doctoral degrees from Columbia University.
